Security First Bank[®]
OF NORTH DAKOTA

A special thank you from Don Huck – Security First Agency

My wife and I had a wild year with our health. This summer I began five weeks of five days per week radiation treatment for prostate cancer and my wife was hospitalized for three weeks due to complications from diverticulitis. Throughout our trying year, my colleagues at Security First Agency were there for me every step of the way, allowing a flexible schedule to accommodate time away from work for treatments and to support my wife. I send a sincere thank you to everyone at the Agency. I also thank Jim and Sarah for fostering and supporting a culture of kindness and understanding, and for making this difficult time in our lives a little easier. The good news is that my treatments were successful! And my wife had her final surgery in November and is recovering. We look forward to good health and good times in 2020.

Thank you to everyone at Security First Bank and Security First Agency. Happy New Year!

2019 Highlights

This past year we were proud to support the communities we live and work in by giving back in many different ways.

Check out some of our highlights!

Toy Drive

Shelby Sandberg is the 8 year old daughter of one of our Bismarck employees. Shelby used money she earned building and selling homemade trees that hold Christmas cards to purchase toys for the Optimist Club of Bismarck's toy drive. The toy drive benefited kiddos in the hospital during the holidays and throughout the year. Her kind actions inspired us to kick off a jeans and no tie day fund raiser. Those funds raised were combined with a match from Security First and generous donations from our customers and the Mandan Lions Club. Together we donated over $1500 in children's toys to the drive.

Food Drive

Security First Bank battled against 5 other local banks to collect the most donated food items for the Bismarck Emergency Food Pantry. We didn't win, but more importantly, together the participating banks left the food pantry filled to the brim with food items. A major success!
